VACATION NOTICE

West Goshen Police Department will provide a free security check for residents who are living in a single family home while they are away on vacation. West Goshen Police Department cannot guarantee that we will be able to check your residence at a specific date/time, but we will make every effort to make as many checks on your residence as time allows. If you return early from your vacation, please inform the Police Department at 610-696-7400.
